

Lightweight, mouldable and extremely shock absorbent, foam is also used in various parts of automobiles. The Thai Foam Group helps to ensure the safety of drivers throughout the region by providing bumper cores (EPP or PIOCELAN moulded) and side-door safety cushions (EPP moulded) to some of the world's biggest automobile manufacturers. Many other parts of the car also use foam, from the seats and head rests to the toolbox in the boot.

